The use of glue is recommend to permanently seal the pendant. We encourage using a modeling glue or epoxy to make a permanent seal.

Make sure you order the little fill funnel. The paper you have to cut out and turn into a funnel that it comes with is awkward and just not the right thing at the right time to be doing. I'm lucky I had a tiny beading funnel or I never would have used this jewelry piece at all! The site should recommend the purchase of that funnel kit, or just give it to you with purchase.

I love the pendant except that the container inside is much too small.

I just wanted to say how pleased I am with this necklace. It is so beautiful and the perfect size to help me keep the memory of my baby girl in my heart and to be able to keep her near me. It has a good weight to it, and I can tell it will last a lifetime.
